

Senator Gail Davenport

Senate District 44

Senator Gail Davenport was elected to the Georgia State Senate from the 44th District in 2006. Sen. Davenport is a Democrat, representing portions of Clayton and Henry counties.

She currently serves on the Higher Education, Interstate Cooperation, Public Safety and Homeland Security, Retirement and Urban Affairs committees.

Sen. Davenport is a native of Atlanta and received her bachelor's degree from Spelman College. She is currently a real estate sales consultant with the Coldwell Banker Success 2000 Realty, Inc. She has served on the National Association of Real Estate Brokers, Atlanta Board of Realtors and the Empire Real Estate Board.

Sen. Davenport has been an active community leader and volunteer. She is a member of the American Business Women's Association, National Council of Negro Women, United Negro College Fund and several others.

Sen. Davenport is a member of the Andrews Chapel United Methodist Church.

February 2007